SPRECKELS MARKET, Inc.

751-755 MARKET STREET Opposite Grant Ave. SAN FRANCISCO

¶ The New Spreckels Market has returned to its Old Location in the center of the shopping district, from which it temporarily moved April 18th, 1906, to permit the construction of the new building. ¶ Marketing in "ye olden days" was a tiresome, unpleasant task, but times have changed and today, thanks to the dauntless San Francisco spirit, we have right here in the heart of our beloved city by the Golden Gate the best, most sanitary, up-to-date market in the world, all of which tends to make marketing at the Spreckels Market a pleasure.
